DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the approximately square area (claim 3) must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 4-20 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim cannot depend from any other multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims 4-20 have not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(c) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cronk

(6,327,983).

5. Regarding claim 1, Cronk teaches a table comprising a substructure, which is supported by legs (31) placed on a standing surface (S), and a tabletop (21) placed onto the substructure, characterized in that the substructure is designed as an upwardly open trough (36) which is arranged below the tabletop (21); and the tabletop (21) is connected fixedly to the trough (36), thus resulting in a sandwich-like construction with mutual reinforcement of the tabletop (21) and trough (36).

6. Regarding claim 2, Cronk teaches a table wherein the trough (36) is of rectangular, trapezoidal, U-shaped or V-shaped cross section (Figs. 4A & 5); and has, at least on two opposite side, plane elements (41) which are fixed over their entire area or at a multiplicity of spot-type, fixed connections (col. 3, lines 64-66) to the underside of the tabletop (21).

7. Claims 1-2 can be alternately rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Cronk (6,327,983).

Art Unit: 3637

8. Claims 1-2 can be alternately rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Cronk (6,327,983).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

11. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cronk (6,327,983) as applied to the claim(s) above. Cronk teach(es) the structure substantially as claimed, including a trough having an elongated area (37). The examiner points out that trough (36) is obviously capable of being fixedly-attached to either an elongated tabletop. The only difference between Cronk and the invention as claimed is that Cronk fail(s) to clearly teach a trough having an approximately square area. However, the examiner points out that that the practice of varying the shape of a trough is well known in the art. It would have been an obvious design consideration to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify trough of Cronk, by giving said trough an approximately square area in lieu of an elongated one, depending on the desired needs of the person constructing the trough (e.g., intended use of the trough, accommodation of different sized tables, aesthetic considerations, compactness, ease of manufacture, etc.), thereby providing the structure substantially as claimed.

Conclusion
